4. NOTABLE FEATURES, HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE AND DESCRIPTION OPEN TO PUBLIC NO 'Hargis House' is a fine example of the Italianate Victorian style. It is a three-story, frame structure, now covered with white asbestos siding, three bays long and two bays deep with a two-story, two-bay wing off-set at the rear. Each bay consists of a double window with over-cornice in the Italianate style. The window of the third story is very small. Above each bay and at the corners in the cornice are two pair of carved and shaped brackets. Between the brackets are large dentils. At the apex of the nearly flat roof is a tall lantern with the same window and cornice treatment. A chimney with two pots stands to the west of the lantern. On Division Street side, one bay is a bay window with unusual brackets and swags. The back wing has the same windows and cornice decoration,
5. PHYSICAL CONDITION OF STRUCTURE Endangered NO Interior Exterior FAIR only there is only one window to each bay. The front door, in center of Federal Street facade, has a double door, sidelights and transom. In the fancy work above is some cut out scroll work, not repeated above the windows.  It is presently used as apartments.
